Quick-start tips

Mark your Must-Haves first. Go through the Shot List and flag the shots that matter most — your photographer will protect those first.

Budget minutes per grouping. Assign minutes to each group photo in the Family Formals Planner. If the total tops 30 minutes, trim the list before the wedding.

Share before the wedding. Send the sheet to your photographer at least two weeks out so they can plan the day around your list.

Print the formals list. Hand a printed copy of the Family Formals Planner to your coordinator on the day — they can gather groups while the photographer keeps shooting.

Share freely. Use Google's Share button to give your partner or photographer access — no extra copies needed.
